

RASAC P&K are working towards ending sexual violence and we need you to make sure that the voices of young people are heard. There are opportunities for you to be involved in campaigning, consultations, peer mentoring and anything else that contributes towards our vision for a society free from sexual violence with equality for all. If you are interested in finding out more you can:

Check out our Facebook page:
www.facebook.com/rasacperth

Follow us on twitter:
@rasacpk

Our website:
www.rasacpk.org.uk

Drop us an email at:
rasacpk@gmail.com

Phone us on:
01738 626290

* If you have been affected by any form of sexual violence and would like support, contact us as above

“A report by NUS suggests that almost a fifth of Freshers experience some form of sexual harassment during their first week of term”

(National Union of Students, 2015)

If you think this is wrong, we need you!

Aged 24 or under?
Want to learn new skills?
Want to meet new people?
Interested in boosting your CV?

Looking to be part of something inspirational which challenges inequality?

If you want to be equality champions, raising awareness and preventing sexual violence turn over to find out more...